

God and Government: Why Christians must be involved in the political process

What if one person made a difference? What if a community could change a country but contented itself to sit on the sidelines - watching history rather than making it? God is looking for men and women of faith to stand up and fight for the heart and soul of their nation. The answer to America's problems cannot be found in the halls of Government or in the sanctuary of a Church, but in individuals living out their beliefs. God and Government journeys through history, presenting inconvenient truths for liberals, conservatives, Catholics and Evangelicals alike. It is a walk along the edge of a comfort zone, a call to action, a jolt from complacency. For too long Christians have contented themselves with sitting on the sidelines, watching culture happen rather than engaging and winning the culture for Christ. It is time for that to change!
