

Cincinnati Memorial Hall and Military Museum: Exeter, New Hampshire (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Cincinnati Memorial Hall and Military Museum: Exeter, New Hampshire
In order to properly equip, furnish and maintain the Hall as a museum and library it will be necessary to obtain subscriptions to a goodly amount, and there is now open to the friends of the Cincinnati an opportunity to perform an important share in the permanent establishment of the Hall. Funds are also needed immediately to enable the Committee to proceed with certain necessary improvements, such as providing suitable quarters for a caretaker in order that the house proper may be devoted entirely to the use of the Society, and kept open for public inspection throughout the year. The names of contributors will be inscribed upon a bronze tablet to be placed in the Hall. It is also proposed to furnish the house, as far as possible, with genuine Colonial furniture, and donations of relics, family portraits, genealogical and historical books, documents, etc., will be greatly appreciated and carefully preserved. At present all such donations will be placed in a room in the Phillips Exeter Academy, through the courtesy of the trustees, until the house can be properly prepared for occupation by the Society.
