

The Courage of Your Faith

In The Courage of Your Faith, twelve short stories from our Baptist history set the stage for the study of issues as relevant today as they were then. You will be challenged and you will be surprised by what stands our forefathers took and by the impact they had. They often were the source and catalyst of social conflagration. Looking at Baptist History in this way teaches us something of what it means to be a Christ follower and the role Christians had in making the world what is today. These stories are part of a Bible Study series of the same name. The studies and supporting documentation, pictures, and web links are available at <http://www.COYFaith.com>. Below are the time periods, the story settings, and some of the study issues. The issues may not be directly addressed in the narratives.

1555 The martyrdom of William Hunter. How important is the Bible?

1608 The first Baptist church. What is Baptism?

1638 The English civil war. Is salvation a matter of mans choice, or is it based on Gods choice of the elect?

1650 The whipping of Obadiah Holmes. Grace. Can you really have victory over sin?

1718 Bonet and Blackbeard come to Charleston. What is the nature and extent of Christian liberty?

1745 The First Great Awakening. How has Christianity changed the world?

1771 The battle of Alamance. What is the role of EMOTION in worship?

1784 The start of a new nation. What stand would an 18th century Baptist take on gay marriage?

1793 Gowan Pamphlets black church of Williamsburg. Associations. Should churches work together?

1845 Southern Baptists separate from American Baptists. What does the slavery issue that divided our country have to do with pornography?

1871 Lottie Moon. How should we react to suffering?

1979 The conservative/liberal confrontation for control of the SBC. Can the Bible be taken literally?
