

The Ten Greatest Sports Coaches (LEGENDS) Of All Time: What Made Them Great and What You Can Learn From Them

This book is as much about what makes a great leader and what you learn from them as it is about the selection of the ten greatest athletic coaches in history. I have carefully read hundreds of documents, commentaries, and Best of lists as well as my own business and athletic experiences in helping to write this book. This book's purpose is to help the aspiring or seasoned leader become great. Great leaders are individuals who have studied personalities, behaviors, psychology, and are experts in their chosen sports or business. I am confident you will walk away from reading this book with a new appreciation of what made these coaches the greatest ever and what you will need to do to rise to their exalted levels in the future. On a final note, I have included at the end of the book a list of those coaches who made Honorable Mention. Any of these coaches could have landed in the top ten but as with any list you need to make some difficult decisions. As always, these decisions are open to discussion and of course disagreement. Please feel free to write to me at Michael.leppo@gmail.com with your comments both positive and negative. Best, Michael Leppo
