

In Indian Logic: Modern Management Philosophies as derived from Ancient Indian Philosophies

The Book In Indian Logic: Modern Management Philosophies as derived from Ancient Indian Philosophies, establishes itself aptly as an educational resource to enlighten and inspire, we - the Indians, and the scholars - worldwide, to create a sense of pride and to give pleasure regarding significance of our age-old Indian heritage in tracing the roots of management discipline as well as in tackling the issues of contemporary management and business-policy, as such. This Book has 12 Modules based on interdisciplinary research-papers, developed with great study and skill. All the 12 research-papers are thoroughly-researched, lucidly-written and properly-referenced, with great appreciations to Ancient Indian Logic and Wisdom as passed on to us, in form of ancient texts and traditions. This book brings out the best Indian Philosophies and Practices from timeless past that can be relevantly useful in today's world in resolving the contemporaneous issues of Business Management and/or Public-governance, and in day-to-day life. This book is equally valuable to the scholars and students of Management, Public Administration and Philosophy disciplines.
