What do a night carrier landing in an F-18, a supersonic dogfight, and a night mission at 30,000 feet have to do with your own success? Everything! In this fast-paced, energetic book, you will discover how to get more done in less time, and with less waste. With principles learned in his decorated fighter pilot career, Ed will show you the keys to speed and success as a leader. And the best part is you don't need to be a fighter pilot to tap into Ed's resources for personal & corporate productivity. In fact, Ed will show you how he went from failing Kindergarten to flying $40 Million dollar supersonic fighters in combat. The principles come from in the trenches experience and are carefully tailored to your growth. Anyone who has spent a significant amount of time in the cockpit of an F-18 fighter jet knows the value of strategy and the power of focus. Ed Rush is a speaker, a three-time #1 bestselling author, and a successful business consultant who has effectively taken the principles that he learned flying faster than the speed of sound and translated them into good business. Ed has helped tens of thousands of event attendees and clients get more done in less time with less waste, not only giving clients the insights they need to grow, but gifting them with the power of implementation to change their businesses for better and for good. Ed is a sought after speaker, bringing his dynamic gifts to the stage in engaging ways that make his clients look great. Ed also serves as the secret weapon that over 300 companies have brought in to help them increase profit & decrease waste, consulting them with honesty and effectiveness.
