

Drama da Bretanha (O) (Portuguese Edition)

The setting of this novel takes place on the coast of Brittany a province in France. The reader will find it highly interesting because, using a wealth of facts, the spirit Charles tells the compelling story of the young Andrea, who, involved in the process of obsession, suffers implacable spiritual persecution, and as a consequence is rejected even by her own parents. However, her older brother, Victor, is on her side, seeking to help her through the rehabilitation of her soul. The book focuses on prayer and its beneficial action on behalf of those who struggle for the reparation of wrongs committed in past lives. Readers will benefit greatly by first reading the other volumes in the series: In the Maelstrom of Sin and The Knight of Numiers.
