

Nightlife

I, William Coronato, was born in New Jersey on May 18, 1951. I spent most of my early life working in the supermarket business, until I decided to go into the night club business in the early 1980s. After leaving the night club business, I decided to write a book on my experiences. I wrote this book because I wanted to entertain-and inform-people what went on after dark. This is my account of my experiences in the nightclub business. Nightlife is based on true events, but all names, and many places and accounts, are fictionalized to make the story more interesting. The story delves into the seedy life of a nightclub owner and the trials and tribulations of the business. It also depicts the many pitfalls that had to be endured just to keep such a business open. The business was neither glamorous nor profitable, and we never knew what problems the next day would bring. However, the club did survive long enough to give me these experiences to write about. I hope you enjoy reading the book as much as I enjoyed writing it.
