

Book of Babel: Words & the Way We See Things

This extended essay-lexicon celebrates the creative confusion of the world's languages as they interact in overheard echoic words, muddled popular etymologies, & the misunderstandings among cultures. This book examines the amazing & amusing category mistakes of metaphor. Why are whitecapped waves white horses in English, sheep in French, & little goats in Spanish? What is the connection between birds nests, baskets, & friendship? Eggs & eyes? Focuses on a single location to show how multiple meanings arose from the mixed & immemorial activities of peasant life. Shows ancient patterns of perception & prejudice at work as well as the resourceful power of the mind to reap a rich crop of meaning from a small seedcorn of words.
