

La huella de los heroes (Spanish Edition)

1960. La maratón de los Juegos Olímpicos de Roma está a punto de comenzar. A lado de los grandes favoritos hay un desconocido, un etíope descalzo de nombre Abebe Bikila. Dos horas y dieciséis minutos más tarde, su victoria formará parte de la historia de esta prueba épica, como una nueva gesta. En este libro, Arcadi Alibés relata las apasionantes historias que han marcado todas las maratones olímpicas -las del gran Emil Zátopek, Dorando Pietri, Félix Carvajal y muchos otros-, y también nos explica su propia experiencia en cada una de ellas, porque, siguiendo la huella de los héroes, el periodista está a un paso de convertirse en el primer corredor del mundo que completa las maratones de las veintidos sedes olímpicas. Gloria, drama y tragedia en un libro imprescindible que contagia la pasión del autor por una prueba mítica. /

1960. The Olympic marathon in Rome is about to begin. Beside the favorites is a stranger, a barefooted Ethiopian named Abebe Bikila. Later, his victory will be part of the epic history of the event as a new quest. It tells the exciting stories of the glory, drama and tragedy that are essential in a book that spreads the passion of the author by a legendary event.
