

The Sleep: Part I: The Fan & The Things That Hit It

At first I thought it was a joke. Some sort of well-orchestrated, viral meme thing. An overly elaborate flash mob. But after a few hours it was serious, after a day it was scary, after the weeks passed it was terrifying, and now Now we have to make some serious decisions about how to live, and more importantly, what to live for. At sixteen, could you run the world? Could you look after the food, the water, the electricity, the government the children? Evie Ballentrae isn't equipped to deal with any of that. But like everyone else her age, she doesn't have a choice. The Fan and The Things That Hit It, is the Part I of The Sleep. What happens to Evie in chapter one will shock you. What happens in chapter nineteen will make you cry. Clickbait Journalist.
